Want Another Fishing Day.

Local fahermen will appeal to Judge Harry E. Each to so amend the bill he has introduced into the legislature relative to allowing fishing on Saturdays only in Alexander's lake after July I. 1916, so as to permit of fishing on one other day of the week. Men who work in stores and other business places say the bill as drawn will shut there out of participation in the sport. there out of participation in the sport, as it is not convenient for them, and in many cases quite impossible for them to get away from their duties on Saturdays.

Francois Lavigno Expired Suddenly at Powhatten Mill.

Prancois Lavigne, 80, a resident on Green street, was found dead in a room at the Powbattan mill Tuesday morn-Mr. Lavigne seemed in his usual Working like Trojans, employes of the road had by early afternoon open-ed the line between Elmville and the sub-station of the road just outside Putnam. It was a mighty slow jeb health when he arose for the day and he ate his breakfast as usual, going to the mill at 6.30. Some time after that hour Joseph Dumas, an employe at the plant, went into one of the lava-tories and found Mr. Lavigne dead. His that the men were called to work on, however, so progress in getting it over was not easy. Not a car reached Danielson. The Rhode Island company's line to Providence was tied up in Connecticut, causing the cancellation of through service during the day, death is believed to have been due to heart disease. After being viewed by the medical examiner, the body was removed to Mr. Lavigne's home. The deceased a native of Canada, had been a resident and a mill worker here for a long term of years. He leaves a family, one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Loiselle, a bride of a week. In some places, near the Four Corners at Dayville, for instance, the ice coating on the rails was so heavy that
